

TRAVEL

JUST THE TWO OF US

The sexiest summer resorts – where kids are strictly not allowed | p6

FIRST-TIME VIETNAM

Islands, beaches, markets and pagodas on our
ultimate two-week trip | p12

MAKING TRACKS

Rio star Helen Glover and adventurer Steve Backshall
on safari in Namibia | p11

We get it. It's not that you don't like children. You were one once. It's just that sometimes – say, when you're on a lovely holiday that you've paid good money for – you'd rather they were neither seen nor heard. Smart hoteliers know this, so they've created serene, stylish resorts with a "No Kids Allowed" sign slapped firmly on the gates, all summer long. Below are our favourite adults-only hotels of the moment. And even if you do have kids, isn't it time Granny and Grandpa spent a bit more quality time with them, anyway?

BLUE JASMINE, CEPHALONIA

A recent facelift ensures the sand- and -sea palette of these 12 suites feels boutique without compromising on Greek charm. There's a cool pool, flower-filled gardens and

Not a bucket and spade in sight. Right, raise a glass on your child-free beach. Left, the high-spec decks at Domes Noruz Chania, on Crete.

COOL WITHOUT KIDS

The pool's inflatable-free and nobody sings the theme from Frozen. With the school hols at their height, Susan d'Arcy has the top grown-up breaks fabulous sea views. A small sandy cove is just a short walk away and Skala's bars and traditional tavernas are five minutes in the car. From £844pp, including car hire, booked through Simpson Travel (020 8003 6557, simpsontravel.com)

DOMES NORUZ CHANIA, CRETE
The actress Helen Hunt described Domes of Elounda as the most serene place she'd ever been. Its new sister property, Domes Noruz Chania, which opened on July 20, repeats the five-star formula: high-spec urban

EXCLUSIVE RUGBY EVENT

Dubai Rugby Sevens & Arabian cruise

11 nights departing 30 Nov 2016 from £1,499pp

Itinerary: Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Sir Bani Yas, Doha, Bahrain, Dubai, Abu Dhabi

Rugby comes to the sun on a four-night break for the Emirates Dubai Rugby Sevens event, followed by a leisurely cruise around Arabia. Leave the chilly UK winter behind and arrive in Dubai to sun and fun and check into your luxury hotel for four nights in the city.

As part of your holiday we've arranged hospitality tickets to the Emirates Dubai Rugby Sevens, so you can enjoy the thrilling action and carnival atmosphere from the VIP stand, in the company of former England and British Lions rugby legend Rory Underwood MBE.

After your stay in Dubai you'll travel to Abu Dhabi to board the stylish MSC Fantasia for your cruise around the ports of the Arabian Sea, including Sir Bani Yas, Doha, Bahrain and Dubai before sailing onto Abu Dhabi for your flight home.

fr £1,499 pp
on board MSC Fantasia

Your holiday includes:

- 7-night full-board cruise on board MSC Fantasia
- FREE outside to balcony upgrade
- 4-night luxury hotel stay at the world's tallest hotel, the JW Marriott in Dubai including breakfast
- Return flights and transfers
- Exclusive rugby event featuring:
  - ✓ Rory Underwood MBE
  - ✓ Corporate hospitality ticket with VIP seating
  - ✓ Breakfast, lunch, dinner, afternoon tea and drinks*

Corporate hospitality

Relax in your VIP seat and enjoy a selection of drinks breakfast, lunch and afternoon tea in between enthralling games of fast and furious rugby. We've also arranged for England rugby legend Rory Underwood to join you for your two days at the rugby.

11 nights departing 30 November 2016 ***LIMITED AVAILABILITY***

Inside
fr £1,499 pp

Outside
fr £1,799 pp

Balcony
fr £1,799 pp

FREE OUTSIDE TO BALCONY UPGRADE

Meet guest speaker Rory Underwood

Record-breaking rugby player and former RAF pilot, Rory Underwood MBE has played in three Rugby World Cup championships with 85 England caps to his name.

Book Now
thetimes.co.uk/imagine

Call us on 0330 160 6744

THE TIMES
TRAVELLER

Prices are based on 2 adults sharing an inside, outside, or balcony. No booking fees. *Limit of five drinks per person per day at the Rugby Sevens.

07.08.2016 / 7

Betsy Inyang

design, enviable beachfront location, sybaritic spa. This time around, however, they've subtracted the crèche and the kids' club. The 83 rooms come with either a plunge pool or a hot tub. We're less sure about the MP3 players loaded with mood music. Chania's old town is a pleasant stroll away. From £1,441pp, booked through Sovereign (01293 762400, sovereign.com); domesnoruz.com

CASA COOK, RHODES

The high-street tour operator Thomas Cook opened its first "bohemian lifestyle" resort this summer, which basically works out as white walls, vintage furniture, ethnic cushions and rattan. It's not quite as cool as it thinks it is, but the pool, restaurant and bar merge into one another nicely and all of the 90 rooms back onto swim-up pools. You're a safe eight miles from Faliraki's drunken debauchery. From £1,175pp, booked through Casa Cook (0844 412 5970, casacook.com)

CASA ANGELINA, AMALFI COAST

This minimalist beauty, cut into the cliffs between Positano and Amalfi, has 39 bedrooms with sugar-white decor and dramatic Murano sculptures that would bring any parent out in a cold sweat. The hotel owns a section of Gavittella Beach (reached by a lift, or 200 steps if you need to work off some spaghetti) and there's a spa, a pool and a terrace with sea views. Extra brownie points on offer if you hire the hotel's boat for a trip to Capri. From £2,199pp, booked through Black Tomato (020 7426 9888, blacktomato.com); casangelina.com

BOHEMIA SUITES, GRAN CANARIA

These 67 honey-toned rooms have the indoor/outdoor design concept down to a fine art, with balconies that feel

No fear of being dive-bombed in the pools at Kahanda Kanda, above, in Sri Lanka, or at Casa Cook, left, in Rhodes. Right, from top, Hurawalhi, in the Maldives, has a supersized underwater restaurant; plenty of room on the beach at The House, Barbados, and time for a leisurely breakfast at Blue Jasmine, on Cephalonia like a continuation of the slick bedrooms. The rooftop restaurant is the perfect perch from which to weigh up the two miles of Playa del Ingles below. There's an indulgent spa, too. From £939pp, half-board, booked through Jet2 Holidays (0800 408 5594, jet2holidays.com); bohemia-grancanaria.com

HOTEL MARIÑA, IBIZA

There's mood rather than disco lighting in the 44 Mediterranean-inspired rooms of this retreat in the heart of Ibiza Town. It has a coffee shop rather than an all-night bar, and a rooftop terrace for sunsets, sangria and stories of celebrated raves of yesteryear. Doubles from £95 a night, B&B; hotelmarignabiza.com. Fly to Ibiza with easyJet

HACIENDA DE ABAJO, LA PALMA

Turn sharp right at Tenerife and discover La Palma, a Canary island of black-sand beaches, pine forests and starchy, starchy nights (the island was the world's first designated Starlight Reserve). Base yourself at Tazacorte, on the west coast, home to the island's best hotel. Built on a sugar-baron's 17th-century estate, the 32 rooms are delightful mini-museums of antiques and ancestral oils. One modern addition is the minibar, stocked with free soft drinks. From £999pp, booked through Prestige Holidays (prestige.holidays.co.uk); hotelhacienda.deabajo.com

CASA LA SIESTA, ANDALUSIA

You can't open a hotel called House of Sleep in Andalusia's snooziest corner and then let kids in. This haven on the Costa de la Luz, 10 minutes from the romantic white village of Vejer de la Frontera, has just eight rooms. The owner is one half of the interior-design firm Bert & May, so expect stucco walls, pitched ceilings with exposed beams and recycled rough-cut wooden furniture, but no artwork – it'd be tricky for paintings to compete with the olive groves and lavender fields outside. Doubles from £220 a night, B&B; casala siesta.com. Fly to Jerez with Ryanair

THE HOUSE, BARBADOS

There's no danger of the theme from Frozen wafting in from the room next door at the House, a glitzy retreat in a prime position on the Platinum Coast, between the buzzy capital,

Packages are for a week in August or September and include breakfast and flights, unless stated

Bridgetown, and the bars of Holetown. Grown-up treats include a jet-lag massage on the beach, champagne on tap at breakfast every morning, and Hobbie Cats to sail, all free of charge. Right next door, Daphne's restaurant, the Bajan outpost of London's Le Caprice, serves superior Italian comfort food. From £1,649pp, booked through Blue Bay Travel (0844 499 7645, caribbeanwarehouse.co.uk); thehousebarbados.com

HURAWALHI, MALDIVES

The Maldives has more than 1,200 resorts to choose from – Hurawalhi, when it opens in November, will be one of only a handful of adults-only properties. Apart from the standard bone-white beaches and Tiffany-blue waters, this place has 90 cutting-edge rooms (the pick are the 15 ocean sunset pool villas) and the world's largest underwater restaurant, sunk almost 20ft down. Two minutes from your balcony is a breeding site for manta rays – some babies you won't mind bumping into. From £2,499pp, booked through The Holiday Place (020 7644 1770, holidayplace.co.uk); hurawalhi.com

KAHANDA KANDA, SRI LANKA

OK, this hotel does let in children – but they have to be older than 12 and extremely well behaved. We just couldn't leave Kahanda Kanda out. It's one of the island's most beautiful boutique hotels, set amid Lake Koggala's tea plantations, an easy tuk-tuk ride from Galle. Lush gardens and lily ponds form buffer zones between the 10 villas, each filled with exquisite local antiques and a four-poster. The views over the jungle and lake will lower your blood pressure instantly. The food is delicious: learn the secrets of that sensational seafood curry during a cookery class. From £1,690pp, booked through Ampersand Travel (020 7819 9770, ampersandtravel.com); kahandakanda.com

TIME FOR TWO

Emma Barnett, The Sunday Times's new advice columnist, on why parents need to leave the kids at home

A child-free holiday is the ultimate reset button. Remember what you used to think about the conversations parents had, before you joined the breeding brigade yourself? If your brains are too befuddled from tiredness and box-set bingeing, allow me to remind you. You thought parent chat stank.

And now you and your other half, despite your best efforts, have fallen into the boring-parent-speak trap. The bedsheets are probably as stale as the words you limply allow to fall out of your mouth at your food-stained kitchen table every evening.

This is why you desperately need a holiday without sprogs. You need to de-familialise yourselves from the daily routine, and from each other, in order to be new and individual again.

Individuality in relationships all too often rapidly dissolves into the family unit, until it just becomes one sloppy, gooey mess in which everyone ceases to make an effort. Yes, the bonds of family are strong and built out of deep love, but complacency affects even the strongest groups.

While you're away, try and get ready for evening meals separately and meet at the bar, as though on a date. And do a few things separately, too – so there is something new to chew over at dinner. Otherness is underrated as a tool to make sure each partner still has something fresh to bring to the table.

Use this holiday to impress each other again – with sparkling chat and, of course, gallons of sparkling foreign fizz.

● Read Emma's new column in today's Sunday Times Magazine. Email your problems to askemma@sunday-times.co.uk