

Leopard safaris by KK Collection

Cooper Enterprises (Pvt.) Ltd., the holding company of KK Collection properties Kahanda Kanda and KK Beach, recently entered into an agreement with Noel Rodrigo Leopard Safaris (NRLS), an award-winning company offering eco-lodging and wildlife glamping experiences in Yala and Wilpattu National Parks.

KK Collection currently consists of two elegant, luxury boutique hotels in Galle – Kahanda Kanda and KK Beach. The additional two properties which offer classical, luxury tented accommodation will be rebranded as “Leopard Safaris by KK Collection”, becoming a part of the KK Collection’s boutique properties. The offering will be marketed as luxury tents for families, honeymooners, and individuals.

Speaking with KK Collection Founder George Cooper on the partnership, he said: “With this exciting new partnership, we will be greatly enhancing the experience for guests staying in both camps, offering modernised and upgraded tents, an embellished range of menus and a wider range of experiences, including new all-day safaris.”

Commenting on the partnership, Director Cecile Rodrigo noted: “We are thrilled and proud to become members of the KK Collection as we have come to understand our shared personal beliefs and professionalism is steeped in our company values. For both companies, customer satisfaction and quality is key and individually, we have achieved great ratings and accolades in the past. Each of us brings a unique set of skills to the table and we are confident that this union will help us perfect the ultimate guest experience, making our joint venture a resounding success!”

Cooper is expected to oversee the design and furnishing of the new tents and campsites, as well as menu engineering. KK Collection Director Mario Stubbs will oversee the marketing and promotion of the upcoming properties. The joint effort of both companies with regards to the hotels’ experiences is expected to make it a truly memorable visit for the guests.